

WEBINAR

ISRAEL- US RELATIONS AND IMPLICATIONS FOR THE WEST ASIA

Rationale

In August 2020, a potentially "historic deal" signed between the United Arab Emirates and Israel, mediated by the Trump administration. The deal was 'hailed' as aiming to normalize the relationship between the two nations, and the Arab world. In this context, the webinar seeks to explore the integral role of the United States in Israel's security, regional and foreign policy dynamics. It will look into the implications of the US' Middle East policy-formation of opposing blocs with Iran, Syria, Turkey and the likes on one side, while Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Bahrain, Israel on the other.

Speakers

Dr. Shreya Upadhyay

- Principal Analyst, Geopolitical Risk, India Bound
- Visiting faculty at the Symbiosis School of International Studies

Dr. Alvite Singh Ningthoujam

- Non-Resident Fellow at the Middle East Institute, New Delhi
- Former Consultant at the Strategic Affairs Wing of the National Security Council Secretariat (NSCS), Prime Minister's Office (PMO), New Delhi
- Visiting faculty at the Symbiosis School of International Studies

10 September, 2020

2:30 pm- 4:30 pm

Details for the webinar platform will be shared separately